SUBJECT : Foreign Shipping to North
Vietnam in June 1965

Attached is the latest in our series of reports on merchant shipping to North Vietnam. Information available at the time of writing shows 42 calls were made at North Vietnamese ports by foreign ships in June. Twenty-four of these were made by Free World ships, 13 of them by British-flag vessels. There were only 7 arrivals by ships of Communist China in June, a number well under that of the past several months.
